

OX2 participates in seminars at Pareto Securities and at Carnegie Investment Bank

OX2's CEO Paul Stormoen will participate in the Pareto Securities' 28th Energy Conference on Thursday 16 September and the Carnegie Cleantech Wind Seminar on Wednesday 22 September.

OX2 continues to see a high activity in all markets where the company operates. So far during the third quarter, OX2 has acquired three new projects for onshore wind power in Sweden, Finland and Poland, as well as a solar power project in Italy, totalling approximately 530 MW.

Following the acquisitions, OX2's project development portfolio amounts to a total of approximately 17.6 GW. Late phase development projects amounted to 2,800 MW per June 30th.

OX2's financial target is to achieve an annual sales volume of projects corresponding to more than 500 MW on average during 2021-2022, more than 1,500 MW on average during 2023-2024, and in the medium term more than 2,000 MW per year.

– During the first half of this year, OX2 has sold projects corresponding to 220 MW, and we are experiencing strong interest in acquiring our wind farms in all markets. The business continues to develop well and in line with previously communicated goals, says Paul Stormoen, CEO of OX2.

CEO Paul Stormoen participates in the following seminars in September:

- Pareto Securities' 28th Energy Conference
Thursday, 16 September 2021
- Carnegie Cleantech Wind Seminar
Wednesday, 22 September 2021

The presentations will be available on OX2.com afterwards.
