

OX2 appoints Paolo Tusa as Vice president Italy

OX2 has appointed Paolo Tusa new Vice President, OX2 Italy, who will take on his new position as of May 2.

Paolo Tusa has many years of experience from the renewable energy sector and most recently from the role as Managing Director at WKN Italia, part of the PNE Group, a German wind and solar developer and electricity producer. Before that he was the Head of Project Development at Enfinity Global, a renewable energy independent energy producer. Paolo Tusa also holds a master's degree in mechanical engineering and an Executive MBA from Luiss Business school.

- I want to extend a warm welcome to Paolo and look forward to working with him in his new role. Italy is a market with great potential for OX2 and Paolos experience will be very valuable. We are about to complete our first wind farm and look forward to developing more projects in onshore wind, as well as solar and energy storage, says Paul Stormoen, CEO, OX2.

- I am proud to join OX2 as Vice President Italy. With an experienced local team and a growing portfolio across wind, solar, and battery energy storage, OX2 is well positioned to play a leading role in Italy's energy transition. I am excited to contribute to OX2's next chapter of growth and help accelerate the shift to a more resilient and decarbonized energy system, says Paolo Tusa, Vice President OX2 Italy.
